FEATURES AND BENEFITS:

- A stunning example of a classic design re-engineered to allow modern appointments such as a sofa bed
- The right proportion of the square arm; not too wide to waste space, not too narrow to compromise comfort
- Cut Pinch stitching detail exemplifies our commitment to producing beautiful, timeless pieces
- High quality elastic webbing for greater seat and back support
- Kiln dried, solid spruce frame of the highest quality adds to overall comfort and lifetime
- D35 ( high density 35kg / cubic metre) foam provides optimum comfort and exceeds industry standard
- Large single pieces of hide used, leaving the seat join and seam free and displays a more premium product
- Available in Scottsdale Buffalo Leather
- Scottsdale is a slightly buffed leather. It features a waxy touch, semi-shiny look with a slight pull-up effect. It has a thickness of 0.9mm to 1.1mm. Characteristics such as scars, vein dark patchy tones within colour are normal and add to the uniqueness of each piece. Scottsdale buffalo leather is 'the real McCoy'
- PLEASE NOTE - since the Scottsdale leather maintains its natural grain, differences in grain and colour are NORMAL from hide to hide. Dark tones on top of the base tone is also normal
- Engineered upholstery & frame gives the most unbelievable seating comfort imaginable, particularly when considering a sofa bed features underneath

SOFA BED

- Engineered upholstery & frame gives the most unbelievable seating comfort imaginable, particularly when considering a sofa bed features underneath
